DARK ALLURE OF GOTHIC GLAMOUR

One of my favorite looks at the moment is the gothic glamour trend. Far from being the stuff of slasher horror films, it is really elegant.

There is something so moody, mysterious and rich about this trend that attracts me, plus I love how this season take on gothic is so feminine—think, perhaps, flirty skirts and loads of jewels.

There's all the allure of a dark, brooding romance with an emphasis on lace, velvet and leather, and romantic shades of black and gold.

Vamp up with moody outdoors and fluid fabrics. To complete the wily's dark beauty go with bewitching locks and perfect, pale skin and don't forget the all-important goot.

Did you see if this trend is for you? Why not experiment with accessories, such as a bold necklace, studded choker, beaded bracelets or even a bold, blood-red lip.
